Happy 2012!

FEATURED BUSINESS OF THE MONTH
DR. BRENDA GENTRY, DDS

Deputy Beasley at Child ID in 2011

Earlier in 2011, businesses advertised in a publication on behalf of the Constable's office titled Fight Drug Abuse. Dr. Brenda Gentry, 300 N Heatherwilde, Suite 100, in Pflugerville was one of our major advertisers. Please show your appreciation to Dr. Gentry and staff for standing up to Drug Abuse! Constable Ballesteros and Dr. Gentry's staff members are in the photo.

We were honored to enjoy Christmas with Steiner Ranch residents (right). It was a rough year for Steiner Ranch residents and quite a nice celebration.

Pct. 2 Police Explorers Post 711 vs. Leander Police Dept. Explorer Post

Police Explorer Post 711 meets on Wednesday evenings and they are trained in shooting in a controlled environment, traffic control, and other phases of law enforcement. Plus they go on field trips and competitions on the week ends.

If you know a young person (men and women) ages 14 through 20 who is interested in a career as a Peace Officer, tell them about the Explorers! For information, contact Adrian Wright, Adrian.Wright@co.travis.tx.us or call, 512-968-2857.

Christmas Toy Donation

Toys donated by MWM Design Group went a long way in Precinct 2. We received truckloads of toys which went to Brown Santa, the Wooldridge Elementary School after hours, and we gave away snacks and more toys at Quail Creek Park. Thank you to everyone who participated! Special thanks to Julia Harrod and Amelia Lopez of MWM Design Group.

Senior Christmas

Constable Ballesteros provided "goodie bags" and door prizes for the Seniors at the Northeast Travis Community Center Christmas Party. Accompanying the Constable were clerks Ruby Felan and Veronica Duran.
